Dear MarySue,

I apologise for having sent this off line as I got a bit confused.

However, this seems the way it ought to be, and I don't think that the Noisy investigation should be under the Asst Guardian as I need them to carry out normal investigations, like the background of the editor (Courier) etc., and would have to tell them what I wanted investigated. There would be no point, if they were in another section.

Yes, this should have your approval - and I went off line.

love,

Jane

Dear Jane -

I don't want any loud investigators at this time - have you heard Ron's tape discussion with the two investigators? We need another type of person altogether which can be discussed.

Love,

MarySue
